

Lacquer finishes and why designers love them

About associating lacquer furniture with brass hardware

June 13, 2021

Lacquer finishes are "glossing" up everywhere! They offer a timeless look that is well suited to almost any interior.

When paired with hardware, an ordinary piece of furniture, wall or a bookshelf can take on a whole new life.

Check out some of our favourite lacquer projects, and the hardware that helps transform them.

Kayla Payne

" I'm obsessed with taking ugly before's and painting them into beautiful after's, and showing homeowners & DIY'ers how to do the same in their homes! " says furniture painter Kayla Payne :

Hardware featured Locke Hardware in Brass and the Evans Hardware in Brass.

Laura Archibald

Designer Laura Archibald lacquered her clients study in a bright fuchsia.

She used the Benson hardware in brass and amazonite to add a pop of color.

Mimi and Hill

The Design Studio Mimi and Hill took an unused nook and transformed it into a luxurious pantry. The Lucite and brass hardware used is the Middleton Bar Pull.

The Resplendent Crowe

Sucheta from the Resplendent Crow creates stunning pieces of furniture. Shown here is a custom hand crafted bedside table featuring the BENSON hardware.

Annie Brahler

Annie Brahler of Euro Trash lacquered an entire butler's pantry off of a clients kitchen and installed the HORNE knobs in malachite with our Bamboo backplates.

Janie Molster

Janie Molster of Janie Molster Designs made an impact in a powder room by lacquering the vanity and using the BAMBOO hardware for a pop of brass.

Barrie Benson

Barrie Benson took closet design up a notch by lacquering these built in drawers and cabinets. She installed the MCCoy pulls from her very own collection in polished brass and moonstone.

The Resplendent Crowe

Sucheta from the Resplendent Crow and her talented husband and partner @modern_woodrunner created this original lacquered design from scratch. They picked up the glossy finish by installing the MIDDLETON acrylic pulls in brass.

Steins Furniture and the Lacquer Studio

Pow! Steins Furniture and the Lacquer Studio took this piece up a notch by lacquering it in a Benjamin Moore color called Razzle Dazzle.

The FRETWORK hardware and MIDDLETON HEX knobs were installed as the finishing touch.
